THE HOUSE - Sports Betting Rules

Effective Date: 1 August 2026

1. General Settlement Rules

1.1 Bets will be settled in accordance with the sport-specific rules below and on the official result declared by the relevant governing body.

1.2 A subsequent disqualification or amendment to an official result will not affect settlement unless the amendment is announced within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial settlement and corrects an error in the originally reported result.

1.3 Bets that are declared void will have the stake refunded.

1.4 Bets settled incorrectly as a result of a genuine human, system or data error may be corrected and resettled.

1.5 If there is an obvious error in the odds or betting limit of a market, THE HOUSE reserves the right to void any affected bets.

2. Football

2.1 General Rules

2.1.1 If a match is postponed, all undetermined bets will be void if the match does not start before 23:59 local time on its scheduled date.

2.1.2 A fixture rearranged before its scheduled kick-off date will not be regarded as postponed, and all bets will stand, provided the rescheduled date is within seventy-two (72) hours of the original kick-off time.

2.1.3 If a match starts but is later abandoned, all undetermined bets will be void if the match is not played to a finish before midnight local time on its scheduled date.

2.1.4 If the venue of a match is different from the expected venue, bets will stand provided the match has not been switched to the opponent's home ground. If the match is switched to the opponent's home ground, all bets will be void.

2.1.5 In major international tournaments, including the World Cup and European Championships, all venues will be deemed neutral. If the scheduled venue changes, including to a venue in another country, all bets will stand.

2.1.6 For friendly matches, bets apply to the full duration of play determined by the match officials, including stoppage time.

2.1.7 If the official fixture lists different team details from those displayed when the bet was accepted, including a different team, reserve team, age group or gender, all affected bets will be void.

2.2 Market Settlement

2.2.1 Match Winner (1X2)

Bets are placed on the outcome of the match. All bets apply to full time according to the match officials, including stoppage time. Extra time and penalty shoot-outs are not included.

2.2.2 Asian Handicap

Bets are placed on the winner of the match after the stated handicap has been applied. Each line will be settled individually. All bets apply to full time according to the match officials, including stoppage time. Extra time and penalty shoot-outs are not included.

2.2.3 Asian Goal Line / Total Goals

Bets are placed on the number of goals scored in the match. Each over/under line will be settled individually. All bets apply to full time according to the match officials, including stoppage time. Extra time and penalty shoot-outs are not included.

3. Tennis

3.1 General Rules

3.1.1 In the event of a retirement or disqualification of a player or doubles pairing, the winner will be deemed to be the player or pairing progressing to the next round, or the winner of the tournament in the case of a final.

3.1.2 If less than one set has been completed, all Moneyline bets will be void.

3.1.3 All bets will stand following a change of scheduled venue or playing surface.

3.1.4 If the scheduled duration of a match is reduced or increased by changing the number of games or sets required to win, all bets will be void except for markets that have already been unconditionally determined.

3.1.5 Rule 3.1.4 does not apply to Moneyline markets on Davis Cup matches or dead-rubber matches shortened from five sets to three sets after the market has been made available, provided the match has been shortened in accordance with the applicable competition rules.

3.2 Market Settlement

3.2.1 Moneyline

Bets are placed on the winner of the match. If less than one set has been completed, all bets on this market will be void.

3.2.2 Game Handicap

Bets are placed on the winner of the match after the stated game-handicap line has been applied. Each line will be settled individually based on the total number of games won by each player or pairing.

In the event of a retirement or disqualification, all Game Handicap bets will be void.

3.2.3 Total Games

Bets are placed on the total number of games played in the match.

In the event of a retirement or disqualification, all Total Games bets will be void.

4. Basketball

4.1 General Rules

4.1.1 All bets will be settled based on the result including any overtime played.

4.1.2 If a match does not take place on its scheduled start date, all bets will be void.

4.1.3 If a match starts but is later abandoned or postponed, then within three (3) days of the scheduled start date either:

a) at least forty-three (43) minutes of play must have elapsed in an NBA match, or at least thirty-five (35) minutes in any other basketball match; or

b) an official result must have been called by the relevant governing body.

4.1.4 If neither condition in Rule 4.1.3 is satisfied, all bets will be void except for markets that have already been unconditionally determined.

4.2 Market Settlement

4.2.1 Moneyline

Bets are placed on the winner of the match and include overtime.

4.2.2 Asian Handicap

Bets are placed on the winner of the match after the stated handicap has been applied. Settlement is based on the total number of points scored and includes overtime.

4.2.3 Total Points

Bets are placed on the total number of points scored in the match and include overtime.

5. American Football

5.1 General Rules

5.1.1 If a match does not start on its scheduled start date, or is not completed within three (3) days of the scheduled start date, all bets will be void.

5.1.2 All markets will be settled on the result including overtime unless otherwise stated or unless the relevant market has already been unconditionally determined.

5.1.3 If the game remains tied after overtime has been completed, all Moneyline bets will be void.

5.1.4 If a match starts but is later abandoned or postponed, at least fifty-five (55) minutes of play must have elapsed and the official result must have been called by the relevant governing body.

5.1.5 If either requirement in Rule 5.1.4 is not satisfied, all bets will be void except for markets that have already been unconditionally determined.

5.1.6 Where an abandoned or postponed match satisfies Rule 5.1.4 but the scores are tied, all Moneyline bets will be void.

5.2 Market Settlement

5.2.1 Moneyline

Bets are placed on the winner of the match and include overtime. If the game remains tied after overtime, all Moneyline bets will be void.

5.2.2 Asian Handicap

Bets are placed on the winner of the match after the stated handicap has been applied. Settlement includes any overtime played.

5.2.3 Total Points

Bets are placed on the total number of points scored. Settlement includes any overtime played.

6. Amendments

6.1 These Rules may be amended from time to time.

6.2 Any amendment will apply only to bets accepted after the amendment becomes effective.

Last Updated: 1 August 2026